Regulatory Bill of Rights

Rev. August 26, 2016

The Arizona Department of Financial Institutions (AZDFI), pursuant to A.R.S. §41-1001.01 provides small businesses with a Bill of Rights relating to their interaction with AZDFI. A small business is defined by A.R.S. §41-1001 as one including its affiliates, which is independently owned and operated, which is not dominant in its field, and which employs fewer than 100 employees or which has gross receipts of less than $4 million in its last fiscal year.

A summary of the rights included in the Bill of Rights is:

1. The right to participate in the rulemaking process of AZDFI in the form of providing written comments or testimony on proposed rules to AZDFI, filing an early review petition with the Governor's Regulatory Review Council, and providing written comments and testimony to the Governor's regulatory Review Council.
2. The right to a licensing decision not based in whole or in part on conditions or requirements not specifically authorized by statute, rule or tribal gaming compact.
3. The right to have a license application approved or denied within a predetermined period of time with written notice from AZDFI explaining a denial as well as the applicant's right to appeal.
4. The right to file a complaint with the Administrative Rules Oversight Committee (AROC) concerning a rule, practice, or substantive policy statement's lack of conformity with statute or legislative intent or its duplicative or onerous nature.
5. The right to file a complaint with the office of the Ombudsman-Citizens Aide to investigate administrative acts of the AZDFI if the regulated party has made reasonable effort with AZDFI to resolve the problem has not been successful, and.
6. The right to have an administrative hearing before an independent administrative law judge regarding contested cases and appealable actions and subject to uniform administrative appeals procedures.

A more detailed explanation of the rights you are entitled to, when interacting with AZDFI, can be found at the following links, 41-1001.01, 41-1006, 41-1007, 41-1009, 41-1373, R20-4-1201 et seq., R4-46-301 et seq.

If you believe that any of your rights have been violated by AZDFI or for more information, please contact Stephen Briggs at sbriggs@azdfi.gov or 602-771-2778. This employee is designated to assist members of the public or regulated community in seeking information or assistance from AZDFI.
